W. C. T. U. Indorses Plan for Disposing of Warehouse Stocks of Beverages.

More rigid enforcement of the prohibition amendment and the purchase by the Federal Government of all alcoholic liquors now held in bonded warehouses in this country, are demanded in resolutions adopted by the forty-sixth annual convention of the District Woman's Christian Temperanec Union. The union will close its two-day session at the Calvary Baptist Church this afternoon. The text of the resolutions, adopted late yesterday, follows:
"We respectfully urge Congress to appropriate sufficient additional funds to make possible the more efficient enforcement of the Eighteenth Amendment and the Federal statute enacted to carry it into effect."

"We respectfully request the Congress of the United States to make provisions for the purchase, at a reasonable price, of all the whiskey and other ardent spirits designed for beyerage purposes now held in bond, to the end that it may be concentrated in a smaller number of warehouses. reducing the expense of guarding the same, and that after reserving sufficient for legitimate uses, the bal ance to be so treated as to render it unfit for beverage purposes and the alcoholic content made available for legitimate commercial purposes.'
